One of the issues that the shipping industry is faced with is creating a higher level of voyage management, which allows not only safety and economy, but also reduces the burden on the environment. In addition, there is also a call for the development of a total "Supply Chain Management" that aims at the optimization of cargo handling and receiving schedule, arrival times and cargo handling schedules to reduce demurrage, and also the optimization of logistics warehousing operations as well.

In order to achieve the "Best Yield," the optimization of safety, economy and environmental issues, operations based in Visibility, Transparency and Mutual Trust are absolutely imperative.

One of the purposes of this seminar is to aim for these goals, through sharing these issues with the entire shipping industry, propagating the groundwork for a global agreement, and finally developing it as a global standard.

In order to achieve this, Weathernews will work with the industry to create the necessary services.
